

Seminar on the Technique of Occupational Health Management and Hazard Evaluation

Date: 18-20 April, 2007

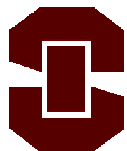

Venue: Tai Shan City, Guangdong Province

In enhance ability of occupational health management and hazard evaluation as well as occupational health management level in enterprises, Science Laboratories Limited were happy to hold Seminar on the Technique of Occupational Health Management and Hazard Evaluation corporately with Occupational Disease Control of Guangdong Province at Tai Shan City, Guangdong Province on 18~20 April, 2007. Speakers from China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and USA were invited to attend the seminar. They presented the updated experiences and evaluation in Occupational Health Management as well as discussed the latest International Standard of several occupational health topics. The speakers are:

- 3 Doctors from Occupational Disease Control of Guangdong Province
- Senior Occupational Hygienist from Labour Department, HK
- Senior Consultant from Occupational Safety & Health Council, HK
- VP, International Sales from Quest Technologies, US
- Marketing Director from Quest Technologies, Taiwan
- Chairman from ENSAFE, US

The Chairman from Occupational Disease Control of Guangdong Province introduced the speakers and presented welcome speech.

Group Photo

More than 100 attendances from representatives of all CDC in Guangdong province, Occupational Health and Safety Managers from different enterprises, customrs from Hong Kong were invited to attend the seminar.

During the seminar, our sales team promoted the occupational health products from Quest Technologies energetically. Their products include heat stress monitor, sound level meter, hand arm and whole body vibration monitor as well as Gilian air sampling pump and calibration system.

Our sales team were demonstrating Gilian constant flow air sampling pump and diagnostic panel to the attendances.

